FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

WEDNESDAY, June 23-6 P. M. The inquiry for money began at an unusually early hour to-day, the first engagements being made be fore eleven o'clock. The change which subsequently occurred, taken in connection with the fact that a decided revival of the "bullish" feeling in stocks was brought about later in the day, induces the inference that it was the final effort of the Shylocks to wring extreme rates from the street. They were aware that the government purchase of bonds would turn nearly two millions of money upon the market late in the day, and hence the necessity for giving it the appearance of activity. The rate at this early hour was as high as one-eighth per cent per day, equivalent to forty-five per cent per annum. High rates were maintained up to a quarter to three o'clock, when the extreme was a sixteenth and interest. At five minutes to three a sudden collapse took place and one round lot of half a million dollars was offered at seven per cent currency. It was evident that those who had sold bonds to the governnent at noon were anxious to employ their money me rate of interest over night.

A telegram from Washington states that the 1st of July statement will show a decrease of six millions in the public debt. The receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30 will exceed the expenditures about General Daniel Butterfield has been appointed Assistant Treasurer in place of Mr. H. H. Van Dyck, who tendered his resignation a lew months since, but discharged the duties of the position up to the present time in compliance with a request from etary Boutwell. General Butterfield, as an old New Yorker and a business man of long experience here, will be a valuable assistant to Mr. Boutwell in suggestions affecting the interests of the city.

Governments responded to the extreme rates for money, and the market at the noon session of the board was heavy under the additional depressing influences of a yield in the price at London and the lower price for gold. The 62's sold down to 122 and the 67's to 119%. Few bonds were offering, and bidders were unable to make the market weak. The recovery was quite marked after three o'clock, and ed as follows:—United States sixes, 1881, registered, 116% a 117; do. do., coupon, 121 a 121 4; do., five-twenties, registered, 116½ a 116½; do. do., coupon, 1862, 122 a 122½; do. do., coupon, 1864, 116½ a 117; do. do., coupon, 1865, 118 a 118½; do. do., coupon, 1865, new, 119½ a 119%; do. do., coupon, 1867, 119% a 119%; do., do., coupon, 1868, 119% a 119%; do., ten-forties, registered, 107% a 107%; do. do., coupon, 108 108%; currency bonds, 105% a 106%.

The government bought $1,620,000 of bonds to-day at prices as follows:-$100,000 1867 coupons at 115.45: $100,000 1867 coupons at 115.44; $100,000 1887 coupons at 115.43; $100,000 1867 coupons at 115.42; $100,000 1867 upons at 115.41; $250,000 1867 coupons at 115.48; $250,000 1867 coupons at 115.50; $46,000 1867 coupons at 115.53; $20,000 1867 coupons at 115.14; $15,000 1867 coupons at 115.14; $70,000 1862 registered at 115.30; $30,000 1867 coupons at 115.32; $10,000 1862 registered at 115.30; $100,000 1867 coupons at 115.49; $100,000 1867 coupons at 115.50: $100,000 1867 coupons at 115.51; $100,000 1867 coupons at 115.52; $19,000 1867 coupons at 115.53; $10,000 1867 registered at 115.53.

The next purchase is advertised to take place or Saturday, and an impression prevails that still another will be made on the Tuesday after. The latter day, it will be remembered, was suggested by Mr. Boutwell in order to close up within the fiscal year. Mr. Van Dyck should make it explicit whether two sales are contemplated within the week or whether the sale of Saturday is in lieu of that suggested for June 29.

Foreign exchange continued quiet, with very little doing. The market is in an uncertain state and buy-ers are as indifferent as drawers. There is hardly any sposition to discount the effect of the payment of the July coupons held in Europe. Should the foreign demand for our five-twenties prove inactive in the interval to the beginning of next month the remittances for the coupons will probably have to be made in bills. Should the demand continue the interest will go back in the form of more bonds. The one cause counterbalances the other, however. In May large shipments of bonds were made instead of bills. The fact that the interest is so promptly paid keeps alive the foreign investment demand. fact has been made manifest within the past few days. Some of the imported goods stored in bond are going back to Europe. The steamer on Saturday is to take out some French goods which could not be marketed. We have heavily imported this spring, according to the figures of the bonded warehouse, but large quantities came here on commission. There appears to be a limit even to extravagance, and it is to be hoped it has been reached this season. The question arises to what extent will our imports be arrested? It is not supposable that any very large amount of those now here will be sent back, but the merchants who deal in foreign goods will prefer working off what is already here to ordering fresh supplies. It will be curious to watch this new influence upon the course of foreign exchange. Prime bankers' sterling to-day was worth 100% a 109% for sixty day and 110% a

The gold market was unusually steady, the extreme range recorded in the Gold Room being from 137 to 13734. One small sale took place at 13734. The market was without animation and operators seemed disposed to await the developments of the next few days. The clique manipulation also appeared to have ceased, and the quotations of to-day were the result of small and comparatively insignificant orchange Bank shows that the purchases of Monday of the second day were a little larger, as will be seen by the report below. When the cliques unl their strategy was more discernible than when they bought; hence they induced large sales by outsi although previously they had the purchases almost

But the inquiry becoming satisfied the pressure to have gold carried returned, and the extreme rates of the gene carrying rates as high as 5-64 and 3-32 before Clear ing House time, although one dilatory and exceptional transaction was recorded at "flat" for bor-rowing. The disbursements of coin interest to-day were $295,546. The following is the report of the Increase......$34,244 The stock market to-day gave indications that it is on the eve of another important movement, but in which direction remains a problem. It seemed to nearly three millions of bonds by the government during the current week and with the change in the policy of gold sales, which is to be instituted after has been seen, at least until the usual fall activity sets in. This feeling was so strong that it led to a decided revival of the "buli" speculation, and prices were carried up from one to six per cent for the railways and correspondingly for the miscellaneous list. Some of the best prices were paid during the most stringent period of the money market, but the activity of the latter continued to so late an hour that some of the list were inclined to yield and did fall off fractionally. On the other hand the "bears" might have lifted the market still higher. They nously shake their heads and maintain in defence of their course that the Secretary of the Tres. sury has already done the mischief, and that without the restoration of his thirty million currency balance o general circulation there cannot be an easy money market. The object of their attack seemed more par-ticularly to be Rock Island and Michigan Southern. The Vanderoilt stocks were the most buoyant, Hudquently reacted to 162%, and New York Central advancing to 191%. The St. Paul stocks were also firmer and higher. Fort Wayne rose to 157 in antiat Pittsburg to-morrow, when the question will be decided whether the twelve per cent guaranteed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company shall be received at the rate of six per cent upon twice the present stock or seven per cent upon 171 3-7 per cent or eight per cent upon 150 per cent of the capital. The exception again to the general buoyancy was Pacific Mail, which sold as low as 85. The following were the closing prices on the call at the last session of the Stock Exchange:-Cumberland, 32% bid; Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, 30% a 30%; American Express, 40% a 40%; Adams Express, 61 bid; United States Express, 69% bld; Merchants' Union Express. 15½ a 15½; Quicksilver, 15 a 15½; Canton, 61½ a 63; Mariposa, 8½ a 10; do. preferred, 16½ a 17; do. cer-tificates, 42 a 48; Pacific Mail, 85% a 86; Western Union Telegraph, 38½ a 38%; New York Central, 190½ a 190½; Hudson River, 160% a 160%; Harlem, 143 bid; Reading, 98½ a 98½; Chicago and Alton, 157; do. preferred, 155 bid; Wabash, 71½ a 72; Milwaukee and St. Paul, 74 a 74½; do. preferred, 85½ a 85½; Fort Wayne, 156½ a 156½; Ohio and Mississippi, 32½ a 32¾; Michigan Central, 132 a 133; Michigan Southern, 196¾ a 196¾; Illinois Central, 141 a 144; Pittsburg, 97% a 97%; Rock Island, 116% a 116%; Northwestern, 78% a 79; do. preferred, 94% a 94%; Boston Water Power, 15% a 17; New Jersey Central, 106% a 106%; Hannibal and St. Joseph, 120 bid; do. preferred. 119% a 120; Columbus, Chicago and Indiana Central, 40 a 40%; Morris and Essex, 89% oid.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

The market for domestic cotton manufactures continues to be characterized by activity and buoyancy, and we have to chronicle a further marked improve ment in prices. As we before remarked, the movement is largely speculative, and this will account for the activity of the market at this proverbially dull season of the year. The demand is based upon the buoyancy of the cotton market here and abroad and commodity. As we have before stated, goods which be replaced except at high prices; and this assertion ments from the manufactories, all of which are held at higher figures than old goods are even now selling for, and these are decidedly higher than those lately current, the discrepancies in some cases amounting to two and three cents per yard. But from prevailing indications it will probably not be long before the new consignments will be taken at the prices demanded. The old stocks are rapidly nishing, and of course cannot be augmented, in view of which the new consignments will be brought munerative prices. The cotton market will in all likelinood continue to control for fabrics, and the fluctuations of cotton at home and abroad will therefore reflect the values of cotton goods in a therefore reflect the values of cotton goods in a marked degree.

Brown and bleached muslins—and nearly all other leading cotton goods—are from ½c. to ic. per yard higher than they were a week ago, with a fair prospect of going still higher.

Frints, though irregular and somewhat unsettled, are, nevertheless, higher. New styles are held above the old, in view of which business is circumscribed.

Printing cloths are regulated by the cost of cotton, and advance in proportion with the raw material.

and advance in proportion with the raw material.

Imported goods have been somewhat less active during the past week, but prices are sustained.

Woolen goods remain steady.

Annexed are the current quotations for the leading kinds of goods:—

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT BY BURNING. A Young Lady Burned to Death.

(From the Wilmington (Del.) Commercial, June 17

(From the Wilmington (Del.) Commercial, June 17.)
A terrible accident occurred at about half-past ten o'clock last evening, which has since been attended with fatal results. A young lady named Laura Carsweil, a teacher in one of our public schools, who rest.'ed with her father, was the victim. She was retiring about half-past ten o'clock last evening, and was ready to get into bed, when she turned to a coal oil lamp, it is supposed, and attempted to extinguish the light by blowing down the chimney. The flame was thus blown down into the oil and the lamp exploded, throwing the blazing oil all over Miss Carswell's night dress and the clothing she had just taken of, lying hear. Enveloped in flames she ran screaming into the entry communicating with her room, where her father immediately afterwards found her. He made every effort to extinguish the flames, and a brother of the young lady tore up a piece of step carpet and threw it over her head. This saved her head from burning, but her whole person, from her neck down, was horribly burned before the flames could be extinguished. By this time Miss Carswell's room was on fire, and it required the efforts of the family to save the house from destruction. Mr. Carswell, in his attempt to save his daugnter, had his hands terribly burned, all the finger nails being burned off one hand, and the other so much injured that it will be a long time before he can use it, if, indee, he ever can. Medical and was immediately summoned to dress the wounds and allevlate the sufferings of the poor girl; but the physicians pronounced her case a hopeless one from the first. She lingured on from the time of the accident until about ten o'clock this morning, when death put an end to her sufferings. During a great part of the time she lived after the accident she was entirely unconscious, and was doubtless thus saved from much of the anguish she would otherwise have suffered. Her body was severely burned, and her person, except her head and feet, was one mass of scorched flesh. She was a yo
